

NEWSPAPERS TO BE MERGED ON SATURDAY

PURCHASE OF GREENCASTLE
HERALD BY BANNER MAKES POSSIBLE ONE PAPER

BETTER PAPER IS POSSIBLE

Paper For Present Time Will Be Printed At Banner Plant, But Later At Herald Plant.

Effective tomorrow, the Daily Banner and the Greencastle Herald, will be merged into one daily paper for this city and community. Today's issue of the Greencastle Herald will be the last issue. The merger was made possible through the sale of the Herald to the publishers of the Banner.

For the present time, the consolidated paper will be published from the plant of the Banner at 18 east Washington street, but a lease has been taken on the Herald building at 17-19 south Jackson street, and within the next few weeks, the plants will be merged into one in that building.

It is the hope of the publishers of The Banner that the one newspaper can be made a better and a larger paper and every effort along this line will be put forth. The Greencastle merchants are enthusiastically behind the movement, because in it they can see a saving in advertising expense and a larger circulation coverage in the future.

The same loyal support that has been accorded The Banner in the past 40 years of its daily existence is asked for the future and the public will be given our best efforts for a better newspaper for Putnam county.

FIREMEN MAKE RUN TO BETA HOUSE TREE FIRE

When a tree in the back yard of the Beta house property on east Anderson street caught fire about 9:45 o'clock Thursday night, city firemen made a run to the scene and emptied their booster tank on the fire truck twice before extinguishing the fire. A passerby who saw the flames, is believed to have called the firemen. The tree was an old, hollow one, and was blazing merrily when the firemen arrived.

CLINTON BOYS WIN DISTRICT BASEBALL TILT

GAME IS WON BY CLOSE MARGIN
OF 1 TO 0 THURSDAY
AFTERNOON

Clinton's American Legion post junior baseball team defeated the West Terre Haute boys, champions of the Vigo county boys' clubs, in the fifth district championship tilt played on McKee field here Thursday afternoon, by the close margin of 1 to 0.

The game was closely contested throughout, the Clinton boys scoring the winning run in the last half of the fourth inning. Both teams put up a splendid exhibition of baseball and provided the fair crowd of fans with plenty of thrills.

Shannon, catcher, and Vitalie, pitcher, composed the Clinton battery, while Melroy, catcher, and Cusick, pitcher, handled the battery positions for West Terre Haute.

By virtue of their victory the Clinton Juniors will represent the Fifth district in the regional games at Frankfort August 3, when winners from the fifth, ninth and tenth districts play for the right to compete in the state contest at Indianapolis August 6.

Larue and Finney were the umpires for the fifth district tilt here Thursday. The district games were under the direction of Raymond R. Neal, of DePauw university.

Clinton's junior team is coached by Petey Rife, former Three-Eye league umpire, and under his direction hopes to win the state title.

STATE MOTOR POLICEMAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

CARLISLE, July 31, (UP)—State Patrolman Gilbert E. Tarwater, 40, of Bicknell, was killed instantly today when he rode his motorcycle from a side road into the path of an auto driven by W. A. Phillips, East St. Louis, Ill., on state road 41 near here. Witnesses said that Tarwater rode into U. S. 41 between two machines, and apparently did not see the one driven by Phillips.

Tarwater was named to the state force July 6.

FARMER'S GUIDE CARRIES STORY ON PUTNAM THEFT

The August 1 issue of the Indiana Farmer's Guide carries an interesting article concerning the arrest and conviction of Harrison O. Rector, alias Ray C. Shockley, who was caught in Putnam County and sentenced for the theft of chickens from the William M. Goldsberry farm. Rector was caught by Sheriff Alva Bryan and the arrest led to later investigations by the local sheriff and a Farmer's Guide Pinkerton detective that resulted in the arrest and sentence of Roy Chatham of near Coatesville and a group of young men. The article is entitled, "Applegate upset Apple Cart," the Applegate referring to the name Rector first gave the sheriff when arrested.

THOUSANDS OF CHINESE PERISH IN RIVER FLOOD

RAGING WATERS OF YANGTZE
RIVER CLAIM APPALLING
DEATH TOLL

MARTIAL LAW IS DECLARED

Five Hundred Natives Reported
Drowned At Wuchang Looting
And Property Damage

HANKOW, China, July 31 (UP)—Raging waters from the rising Yangtze river today spread death and incredible property damage throughout most of the rich farming regions of central China.

The death toll from the most serious flood in the recent history of the Yangtze valley increased hourly. It mounted into the thousands. Scores of bodies were whirled off in the mad torrent, and unrecovered. An accurate count of the dead was impossible.

At least 500 persons were drowned at Wuchang, reports said. Other communities up and down the broad Yangtze reported appalling death tolls. Panic spread through the cities. The river continued to rise.

Hankow was entirely under water, which was several feet deep along the river front.

Martial law prevailed. Soldiers got about as best they could and sought to prevent looting.

The entire Wuhan area—which includes the thriving industrial and trading centers of Wuchang, Hankow and HanYang—is inundated. The river had swollen until the district looked like an inland sea tumultuously running a swift tide.

Hankow and its sister cities are 600 miles inland from the Pacific coast. The three cities form the "Chicago of China." Most of the commerce of the great farming hinterland passes through these cities, wealthy in prosperous times. Their combined population is around 1,500,000.

The swift stream swept through broken dykes in torrents. It was feared the few remaining dykes would break at any time, further imperiling the lives of the people.

Graf Back Home After Polar Trip

FLIGHT OVER ARCTIC WASTE
FEATURED BY UN-
EVENTFULNESS

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, July 31, (UP)—The Graf Zeppelin returned to its home base today after a remarkable flight over Arctic wastes near the north pole.

The big dirigible was sighted over the airport at dawn, its familiar long, slender hull sliding through the gray skies toward its graceful landing. It came down at 4:52 a. m., without incident.

The entire flight over areas which in only very recent years man required months to traverse was regarded as remarkable because of its uneventfulness. The Graf Zeppelin—veteran of a world cruise and numerous transatlantic flights—sped away one day last week for the north, swiftly overtook the Soviet icebreaker Malygin near Franz Josef land, moved on into the Arctic, then came back.

"Our Arctic trip was most pleasant," Dr. Hugo Eckner, in command, commented in a radio speech at Berlin last evening. "It was not in the slightest a perilous cruise. We just sailed along under a sky as blue as Italy's, with fine, clear weather all the way."

AN OLD TIMER

H. M. Bennett recalled today that he had been a constant subscriber to The Daily Banner for the past 32 years this month. He was of the opinion that it had helped him live 32 happy years.

OTTAWA HOST TO FAMOUS FLYING PAIR

COL. AND MRS. LINDBERGH
PAUSE FOR A DAY IN ONTARIO CITY

PERILOUS FLIGHT AHEAD

"Lone Eagle" And Wife On First Leg
Of 7,000 Mile Vacation
Trip to Orient

OTTAWA, Ont., July 31, (UP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, facing the wild, treacherous country between Hudson Bay and Alaska, on their 7,000-mile air vacation trip to the Orient, remained here today to confer with fliers familiar with the country's rugged characteristics.

"We will not leave today," the flier said. He indicated he might make some announcement later today as to when the trip would be resumed.

The famous couple arrived here at 4:33 p. m. EST yesterday after covering the 380 miles from North Haven, Me., the summer estate of Senator Dwight W. Morrow, in three hours 23 minutes. The trim seaplane came down to a graceful landing on the choppy waters of the Ottawa river after dipping down in salute to the party of Canadian officials on hand to greet him.

Lindbergh and his wife were flushed and smiling. An official launch, containing Col. Hanford MacNider, the American minister, Mrs. MacNider, and Canadian officials, put out toward the spot where the monoplane was riding, but held back while Lindbergh packed away some portable gear, instruments and supplies.

Mrs. Lindbergh, wearing a white flying cap and blue shirtwaist, clambered into a small launch and waited for her husband to finish. Then they joined the official party, Mrs. Lindbergh choosing a seat in the rear of the launch and conversing eagerly with Mrs. MacNider.

Lindbergh was asked why he had stopped in Ottawa.

"Isn't this a delightful place for an overnight stop?" he replied.

The flier planned to get the advice of those obscure but veteran aviators who have made their life work the spanning of the treacherous Hudson Bay country—regions in which explorers have starved to death and where civilization has not penetrated. These men have offered to point out the best routes to Alaska.

Lindbergh did not seem worried about the reported difficulties of the perilous trip.

Heat Wave Hits Central Indiana

PUTNAM COUNTY SWELTERING
UNDER DEGREES RANGING
NEAR THE 100 MARK

Central Indiana, including Greencastle and Putnam county, is suffering from an intense heat wave that the weather man has not forecast a break in for another few days.

The temperature ranged near the 100 degree mark Thursday and again Friday morning soared upward rapidly at an early hour, and with a scorching sun shining from a clear sky, it looked as though the day would see former records equalled, so far as blistering heat is concerned.

LEE KENDALL IS RELEASED

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP MAN
WAS HELD FOR KENTUCKY
AUTHORITIES

Lee Kendall, age 42, Washington township man, held in the county jail here for the last 14 days, following his arrest on a charge of escaping lawful custody at Moorhead, Ky., was released from jail Friday noon by Sheriff Alva Bryan on orders of Judge James P. Hughes.

Kendall after being taken into custody refused to waive extradition, and papers were sent here from Kentucky which were found to be incorrect. The papers were sent back for correction but were never returned here. Judge Hughes then ordered Kendall to be released.

Kendall bears an excellent reputation in Washington township and several prominent residents of that community interested in his behalf. It was said Kendall escaped from a road gang in Kentucky while serving time on a liquor charge.

J. E. McCURRY TO SELL HIS FURNITURE STOCK

J. E. McCurry, who has been in the furniture business in Greencastle for many years, announced Friday that he is planning to sell his stock in order to devote all his time in the future to his undertaking business.

Mr. McCurry will conduct an auction sale at his store, on the west side of the square, beginning next Wednesday, August 5. The closing of this well known business house will be another of several changes in the downtown business district during the past twelve months.

4-H CLUB PICNIC

The annual Putnam County 4-H club picnic was held at Allendale Springs Friday with a big attendance of 4-H club members and leaders from over the county. Those in charge had arranged a splendid program of entertainment for the young people.

4-H CLUB CAMP DIVIDED INTO TWO SECTIONS

SHA-KA-MAK PARK NOT SUFFICIENT TO TAKE CARE OF ALL MEMBERS AT ONE TIME

Seventy-two boys, girls and club leaders will attend the 4-H club camp at Sha-ka-mak state park from Aug. 6-10, according to announcement by officers in charge of the camp.

The Putnam county delegation will leave on Thursday morning and will return on Monday, Aug. 10. A full program of events has been arranged for those attending camp and new club camp buildings will be enjoyed by a group of folks from Putnam county for the first time as the buildings are just now near completion. The camp will be run on regular schedule with classes and song services in the morning and swimming and games in the afternoon. Each evening, vesper services and camp fire services will be held with members from the various counties participating in the program.

Robert B. Stewart of Brazil, is the speaker for vesper services on Thursday evening of the first camp and again on Monday evening of the second camp.

Clay, Vermillion, Sullivan and Putnam counties will make up the group which will attend camp the first week and Vigo and Parke counties attend the second week. The same program will be held both weeks. It was necessary to split the annual district outing into two sections this year because the accommodations at the park are not sufficient to take care of all the club boys and girls of the district who desire to attend. The camp will have present a trained nurse who will have charge of first aid and who will conduct classes on this same work. A large mess hall has been built and bunk houses equipped with double decked beds will add to the comfort of those who are attending club camp.

Each evening, a camp fire service is given by talent from the different counties. Sunday, Aug. 9 will be visitors day and those interested in the camp are cordially invited to attend.

2 New Stores Open On Friday

KROGER AND OAKLEY'S BOTH
OPEN WITH COMPLETE
NEW STORES

Downtown Greencastle enjoyed the opening of two beautiful new grocery stores Friday morning when the Kroger Company and the Oakley Stores opened for business. The Kroger store is in the Hays building at the corner of Indiana and Washington streets and the Oakley store is in the Hitt building on the south side of the square. Both rooms have been completely remodeled and made into two of the finest business rooms in the city.

The Kroger opening had been planned for today and tomorrow, and the Oakley store did an almost unheard of thing in preparing their room and opening Friday also. Some finishing details remain, but in the whole the store presented a completed appearance at opening time Friday.

TAKES OFFICE SATURDAY

Vermillion of Greencastle, who has held this office for the past ten years. Mr. Sands was elected by the county board of education at its July meeting.

Mr. Vermillion plans to devote his time to operating a rooming and boarding house and to serving special dinners.

JUDGE SPRINGS SURPRISE IN CAPONE CASE

ALLOWS GANGSTER'S LAWYERS
TO WITHDRAW GUILTY PLEA
ON TAX CHARGE

SETS SEPTEMBER 8 FOR TRIAL

Chicago Underworld Leader's Attorneys Surprised By Judge Wilkerson's Procedure.

CHICAGO, July 31, (UP)—Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson today permitted attorneys for "Scarface Al" Capone to withdraw the gang leader's plea of guilty in the income tax case but reserved decision on the prohibition conspiracy plea until Sept. 8.

Judge Wilkerson upset prearranged plans to rule on the case this afternoon by calling Capone, his attorneys, members of the federal grand jury and government prosecutors into court this morning.

Trial on the income tax case was set for Sept. 8.

CHICAGO, July 31, (UP)—The jaunty and confidence which were Alphonse (Scarface Al) Capone's were gone today as he faced another appearance before Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson to learn whether he could withdraw his pleas of guilty to income tax fraud and 5,000 liquor violations.

The portly gang chieftain was all smiles when he entered Wilkerson's court yesterday. The previous night he had told the United Press that he had "burned his bridges behind him" and was ready "to take his medicine."

He believed the "medicine" would be a few years in prison although he knew that the charges to which he had pleaded guilty carried a maximum penalty of 34 years and $50,000 fines.

His smiles turned to frowns as Wilkerson snapped out a declaration that "a bargain cannot be made with the federal court" and that it was his privilege to disregard any "understandings" as to sentence which might have been reached between lawyers for Capone and the government before the case got into court.

Capone's attorneys replied that if that was the way the judge felt about it they wished to withdraw the pleas of guilty. Both they and U. S. District Attorney George E. O. Johnson, who brought about Capone's downfall, said the pleas had been entered with the understanding Johnson would recommend a sentence agreeable to both. Johnson added that high officials in Washington consented to this "get Capone in prison quickly."

Wilkerson declared that he and he only could decide the sentence, that he wanted to question Capone personally and then would follow Johnson's recommendations only if he wished. He said he would rule at 2 p. m. today whether to allow Capone to withdraw his pleas and stand trial.

This left the gangster's fate squarely with the judge, who could sentence Capone at once or grant the request and open the way for a long, expensive trial which might result in Capone escaping imprisonment many more months and possibly allow him to remain free on bail in Chicago until the world's fair in 1933.

CONVICT SENT FROM HERE IS DENIED PAROLE

WILLIAM MIDDLETON UNDER SENTENCE OF 10 TO 21
YEARS

William Middleton, sentenced in the Putnam Circuit court April 19, 1929, on a charge of robbery, was denied commutation of his 10 to 21 year sentence, by the Indiana state prison board, sitting as a board of parole at Michigan City, Thursday.

The board granted four prisoners petitions for clemency, four cases were continued and twenty-one pleas were denied including those of six lifers.

Middleton was convicted in the Putnam Circuit court of holding up and robbing Rufus Vontress at his filling station at Limesdale. Vontress and his wife both identified Middleton as a cement plant worker who took $52 from Vontress at the point of a gun. Middleton was apprehended in Terre Haute shortly after the holdup and returned to Greencastle where he pleaded guilty to a robbery charge.

Police officer John Hunter of Brazil made a run to Pleasant Gardens to investigate the accident and had the injured man taken to the Clay county hospital where it was found that he had sustained a fracture of the left ankle and was painfully bruised and cut.

AIRMEN PLAN LONG FLIGHT FROM MOSCOW

SIBERIA DASH SCHEDULED BY AMERICANS ON GLOBE

TURKEY HONORS AVIATORS

New England Fliers Feted After Spectacular Journey From New York To Istanbul

MOSCOW, July 31, (UP)—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, Jr., hurrying on their record-breaking attempt around the world, left at 5:20 p. m. today for Siberia.

The fliers made only a brief halt here, making up some of the time they were behind Post and Gatty, and planned a long jump into Siberia to make up still further time.

MOSCOW, July 31, (UP)—A long "hop" from Moscow, possibly as far as Irkutsk, Siberia, was planned today by Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, Jr., to help them catch up on the round-the-world record schedule of the Post-Gatty flight.

They arrived at 11:52 a. m. (3:52 a. m. EST) from Berlin. Reckoning from the time Post and Gatty left Moscow, Pangborn and Herndon were seven hours behind, with a correspondingly difficult task if they are to establish a new time record.

The landing here was smooth. Both fliers were cheerful and anxious to refuel and depart again as soon as possible. They reported they had fought head winds all the way from Berlin.

Despite the fact prospects did not seem bright for beating the Post-Gatty time, they insisted they were determined to beat the recent record. By extending the length of their stages they hoped to raise their average speed.

Andrew Rosinoff greeted Pangborn and Herndon on behalf of Osoaviakhim, the Soviet society for aviation and chemical defense, and escorted them to the Grand Hotel.

ISTANBUL, Turkey, July 31, (UP)—An examination of the trans-Atlantic monoplane Cape Cod was to be made by Russell Boardman this afternoon to determine if it is fit to carry out "further flight plans," it was learned today.

The nature of the plans was kept secret. It was believed, however, that they were for a continuation of Boardman's flight with John Polando around the world, in an air race with Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, Jr.

Boardman and Polando had announced plans only for the non-stop flight from New York to Istanbul in an effort to set a new long distance record. They covered 4,984 miles in their Bellanca plane, the Cape Cod, they said at the end of the fifth successful crossing of the Atlantic this year. The distance, they claimed, was the greatest ever covered by man in a non-stop journey.

In the beginning, that had been their goal, but their success coupled with the Pangborn-Herndon flight now under way led to consideration of continuing the flight in a race for new honors.

It was recalled that the Istanbul fliers had stolen the airport apron from Pangborn and Herndon last Tuesday, and thus got away first.

The world's distance record, held by Dioudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte of France, is 4,912 miles. It must be exceeded by 62 miles to set a new mark. Official figures were awaited on the Cape Cod achievement.

PARIS, July 31, (UP)—The Boardman-Polando flight to Turkey was officially declared today to have set a new distance record.

An announcement by the International Aeronautic Federation said the American plane had traveled 3045 kilometers (4,995.9 miles), breaking Dioudonne Coste's record of 4,912 miles by more than the requisite 62 miles.

PUTNAM CO. RATING BOOK GOES TO PRINT AUGUST 10

The printing of the Putnam county rating book has been postponed ten days, as the members of the association felt it advisable to extend a little more time.

If anyone owes past due bills, now is the time to pay, or if for any valid reason a creditor cannot promptly meet payment, don't neglect this obligation. Creditors should call on the merchant and explain to him. The credit man will appreciate this act, because it proves to him that creditors are not trying to "dodge" or "hide."

The most fooled man is the man who fools himself—particularly when it comes to paying his bills.

The Putnam county credit association is a member of both the state and national associations, so that credit information is not only available here in the county to merchants and professional men, but to all affiliated bureaus over the country. Today the man who fails to pay his bills promptly finds that his name has been placed on the "Slow Pay or No Good" of the Retail Credit Men's Association. This file or record is open to every member of the association in Putnam county.

His name is spread before the eyes of every merchant, every doctor and dentist with whom he comes in contact, and should he apply for credit from any one of them, his record "Slow Pay" will be remembered, and credit might be refused.

Credit is one's greatest asset. There is no feature more important than a good credit. Standing in the community as a citizen is affected by the way in which bills are paid.

TRACY COX WINS IN SENSATIONAL BATTLE

Tracy Cox, Indianapolis junior lightweight, and former Greencastle boy, won a slashing ten-round decision from Eddie Anderson, Wyoming lightweight, at Washington ballpark in Indianapolis last night before a crowd estimated at 5,000.

It was a close decision but was the unanimous verdict of the two judges and referee that Cox had gained sufficient edge to get the nod.

Cox floored Anderson for a knockdown in the third round, but the Western brawler appeared unhurt, and was on his feet before the count could be started. In the tenth both connected with vicious rights to the chin and crashed almost simultaneously to the canvass. This was shortly before the bell. Cox appeared the most hurt of the two, but the gong sounded before Anderson could take advantage.

As a result of the sensational battle both fighters put up, the pair was rematched for a twelve-round fight to a decision to be contested in the same arena on the night of Aug. 20.

MOVIES

AT THE GRANADA

Hoot Gibson adheres to his policy of "change of pace" in the "The Mounted Stranger" stirring Universal all talking picture coming to the Granada theater Saturday.

Gibson is carrying out a consistent policy of variety in making the thrilling pictures that have placed him on the pinnacle of western stardom. In his various pictures he is portraying the romantic west in both its old and new phases.

He broke with the old western picture tradition by introducing automobiles, motorcycles and airplanes when he thought they added to interest and excitement. He was the first western star to make use of airplanes in his pictures.

In "The Mounted Stranger" Gibson returns to the old west of horses and gun play. The scenes of the action are laid in the great southwest, down near the border.

The picture has a continuously exciting plot, laid in a most colorful setting. Many of the most effective scenes were shot in the wild and awe inspiring wastes of the great Mojave desert.

Gibson plays the part of a hard riding, hard fighting young cowpuncher, who single-handed sets out to "get" a gang of bad men who had murdered his father. Despite the grimness of this central purpose, there is ample romance, to say nothing of Gibson's special brand of western humor.

Charming Louise Lorraine plays opposite Gibson in the picture, which was directed by Arthur Rosson. The film is based on Henry H. Knibbs' famous story, "The Riddin' Kid From Powder River."

ACCEPTS OFFER

DANVILLE, July 31 (UP)—A landlord who at first refused to accept $50 rent money gave in when 40 farmers faced Sheriff L. L. Pounds and said they would not permit him to eject Mrs. Winnie Runion and her four children from their farm near here.

Mrs. Runion, whose husband allegedly deserted her several months ago, was unable to pay her rent. Although H. L. Jenkins, a neighbor attempted to pay it for her, Elijah Smith, the landlord, refused to accept and obtained a court order ejecting her.

When the sheriff went to serve the order he was met by the farmers and after a parley the money was again offered Smith. He accepted.

UNDERTAKER ARRESTED

KEWANEE, Ill., July 31, (UP)—Undertaker Stanley Foote was deprived of his ambulance today under circumstances that were mortifying, particularly to a mortician.

The ambulance was being held by police here to cover a fine of $103.40 which Foote found himself unable to pay on the short notice incident to his arrest in a Kewanee speakeasy.

The speakeasy was the scene of a boisterous row. When police arrived Foote pleaded that he must be on his way, explaining that he was taking a patient from Watertown, Ill., to Canton, Ill., the locale of Foote's embalming activities.

As the undertaker got behind the wheel of his ambulance a din broke loose inside the conveyance.

"Your patient must be suffering something awful," one of the officers said and opened the doors with an inquiring and sympathetic look. He shrunk back, but only for an instant. Then he leaped inside and said gruffly to the undertaker: "Drive to the police station."

Foote stopped in front of the station. He got out. The officer got out. A young man got out. Two young women from Canton got out. Then the officer pulled out a tub, filled with ice and bottles of beer.

PROVED HIS STRENGTH

PERU, July 31 (UP)—Cecil Alfrew, 17, is not as interested in proving his strength as he was when Patrolman Ivol Quinn first asked him, he said today.

Alfrew broke a pine board with his fist several days ago and when Patrolman Quinn questioned him about his strength he walked to a metal parking sign and struck it with his fist. The sign was knocked to the ground but Alfrew suffered two broken bones in his hand.

MURDER TRIAL FOR ATTORNEY OPENS AUG. 3RD

ACCUSED OF SLAYING EX-POLITICAL BOSS AND WELL-KNOWN LOS ANGELES EDITOR

LOS ANGELES, July 31 (UP)—David H. Clark, handsome young attorney, is scheduled to go to court here August 3 in what is expected to be Los Angeles' most sensational murder trial since Edward Hickman was convicted of the murder of Marion Parker.

Clark, recently a candidate for a municipal judgeship and for seven years a deputy in the district attorney's office, will face the charge of having slain Herbert Spencer, prominent locally as a newspaperman and political magazine writer.

The brilliant attorney also is accused of having killed Charles Crawford, for years political boss of Los Angeles, but he will not be tried on that count, at least not until after the Spencer case has been concluded.

The Spencer case has a distinct political flavor, since Spencer, co-editor of the political Critic of Critiques and Crawford, dabbling in politics after a brief retirement, were shot down together on the afternoon of May 20, less than two weeks before the day people voted on Clark as a candidate for judge.

The tremendous interest in the case is attributed to the prominence of the principals; the charges, often repeated, that half of the political and underworld characters fear what Clark may say and have tried to cover facts in the case; and the fact that Clark has advanced no defense as yet, an almost unprecedented procedure in Los Angeles criminal cases.

Clark is a very popular figure. He looks and dresses like a motion picture hero. In his seven years in the district attorney's office he tried many important cases. He successfully prosecuted Albert Marco, once the vice lord of Los Angeles, on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. More recently he gained the conviction on theft charges of Daisy De Voe, former secretary of Clara Bow.

Clark went to Agua Caliente the week-end before the slaying. He returned to his home here Monday and after greeting his young wife left to go to his office. His whereabouts from that time until the next afternoon have not been traced. Tuesday afternoon he entered a store and bought a revolver. His next positively known movement was his surrender Thursday night, May 21, after the district attorney's office announced it wanted him for the double murder.

Meantime on Wednesday afternoon a young man entered Crawford's real estate office on Sunset Boulevard in Hollywood.

The man, according to the district attorney's office, was young Dave Clark. Crawford was back in the political game attempting to regain the prominence he once held when he was credited with running the entire city administration.

A few minutes after the man entered Crawford's office, Spencer, then writing devastating political articles for the Critic of Critiques, also came in.

The three men conferred in an inner office for half an hour. Then there were quick shots and the slayer ran out a side entrance. After him came Spencer, but Spencer was mortally wounded and fell on the sidewalk and died.

Crawford's secretary, Miss Lucille Fisher, and his bodyguard, George Crawford, his brother, carried Spencer into the outer office and then went into the inner office to find Crawford mortally wounded. Crawford died three hours later without having revealed the name of his slayer.

Although Crawford carried a gun, according to his brother, his gun was not found in the inner office nor has it been found since. Neither has the gun of the slayer.

Miss Fisher and other office helpers were said by the district attorney's office to have identified the third man in the office as Clark.

Before this asserted identification was made, the first thing District Attorney Byron Fitts did was to call in for questioning Guy McAfee, former police officer and credited with having taken over the underworld reins after Clark sent Marco to San Quentin.

The Critic of Critiques had been attacking McAfee viciously as the "Capone of Los Angeles" and McAfee and Crawford were said not to be friendly. McAfee also was reported to be supporting Clark in his judgeship race.

McAfee immediately proved an alibi, having been in the Hall of Justice, near Fitts' office, at the very time someone was sending Crawford and Spencer to their deaths.

After his conference with McAfee, Fitts announced that Clark was the murderer.

The next day Clark telephoned the district attorney's office, said he understood he was wanted and went down town and surrendered.

He refused then to say anything about any facts in the case and he has refused to speak of them to this day.

"I am not guilty as charged" was the only defense he attempted.

He refused to say what happened to the gun he bought, he refused to admit, or deny, that he was in Crawford's office, he refused to admit, or deny, that he shot either or both men, he refused to say where he was during the time he was absent from his home.

It was learned that Clark's bank account was overdrawn because of expenditures for his campaign.

He came into court a few days after the shooting to be given a preliminary hearing. The courtroom was crowded and his entrance drew a tremendous applause. He asked for bail and was admitted to $100,000 bail.

This was said to be the first time a man accused of a double murder ever was admitted to bail in Los Angeles. It was interesting, too, that the bail was posted for Clark almost immediately.

Clark's popularity was shown again in the election June 2. He polled almost 70,000 votes, while his successful opponent drew only 20,000 more.

Immediately after Clark surrendered District Attorney Fitts announced that because every one in his office was friendly with Clark that a special prosecutor, Joe Ford, had been selected.

Ford is one of the best known criminal attorneys in Los Angeles and formerly was a prosecutor. Ford immediately fought with the Los Angeles police, claiming they were lax in running down clues and evidence in the case.

Spencer and Crawford each had a number of safety deposit boxes and Spencer once published the fact that he believed his life was in danger and that if he was killed the name of his lawyer would be found in the box.

It was almost a week before officials got around to inspecting all these safety deposit vaults and they were found to be empty then.

On this apparent laxity and on the fights between officers of the district attorney's office and the police were formed the charges of a "cover up".

Clark engaged W. I. Gilbert and Leonard Wilson as his counsel and immediately the legal battle started.

Because Clark refused to talk or to make known his defense, Ford announced he would be tried first for shooting Spencer and then for shooting Crawford. Clark attempted to force trial of both counts at one time but was not successful.

ALL INSTITUTION CROWDED INDIANAPOLIS, July 31 (UP)—

Overcrowded conditions in all of Indiana's institutions were aggravated by a gain in population during the past year, John A. Brown, secretary of the board of state charities said.

Populations in the 20 state institutions gained 924 during 1930 and the state hospitals now have approximately 20 per cent more patients than they were intended to have Brown said.

The largest was made by the state reformatory at Pendleton with an increase of 300. The institution now has 2,315 against a normal capacity of 1,200. The second largest increase was at the Putnamville state farm which gained 118. It now has 1,345 against a normal capacity of 1,200.

SHERIFF OUTWITS FARMER ROCHESTER, July 31 (UP)—

Russell Flohr's game of hide and seek with the sheriff's of Miami, Fulton and Wabash counties, is over the officers said here following his arrest on liquor possession charges.

Flohr's 300 acre farm lies in the three counties and he is said to have moved liquor he was making from one county to another when he saw raiding parties approaching. As the raiding parties had jurisdiction only in the county in which their sheriff lived, Flohr was able to avoid arrest, it was said.

Sheriff Ora Clark of Fulton county arrested Flohr with a case of alleged beer in his possession.

BURGLAR GIVES ALARM

CLINTON, July 31 (UP)—An alleged robber of the Cottrell Brothers' Feed store here made his own burglar alarm.

When he accidentally knocked off the telephone receiver while in the store late at night, Miss Margaret Harrison, night telephone operator, called police.

Roy Sassen, 25, living near here, was arrested on the charge of robbing the place.

CONFLICT IN HUNTING

DATES IS POINTED OUT Putnam county sportsmen, who now are busy buying hunting licenses for the opening of the squirrel season August 1, will find a conflict of dates for the rabbit season as specified on the back of their licenses and in the little booklet containing the state game laws.

Hunters are warned that in hunting rabbits this fall they must abide by the state law rather than by the dates on the back of their licenses. The correct date for the opening of the rabbit season is November 10 and not October 1, as noted on the license. The season closes January 10.

The conflict of dates in regard to the rabbit season is due to the fact that the license cards were printed before the last session of the legislature which changed the dates. Persons killing rabbits out of season will be subject to a fine.

BURROS STEAL ICE CREAM

CRESTONE, Colo., (UP)—Spending a quiet day on Middle Creek, L. W. Gross decided to put his two gallons of ice cream in the creek to keep solid while he fished. Surveying the neighborhood, he saw only two sleepy burros, and cached the delicacy in the cool water. While Gross fished, the burros awoke, found the freezer, nosed off the cover, and enjoyed a mid-summer lunch at his expense.

SENTENCED FOR MILK THEFT ALBEMARLE, N. C. (UP)—Julius Hill was sentenced to four months in the county jail here for stealing a quart of milk from a dairy.
